

Check out MusicPlay's Theme and Variations Publications for print publications and digital downloads.

Other music education resource platforms and marketplaces also sell these publications.

Resource #1: Stories and Nursery Rhymes to Sing, Rap and Read
(Book 3), by Christie Noble and Tracy Stener

- includes printable manipulatives
- Includes high-quality engaging downloadable digital audio recordings
- incorporates movement songs and ideas
- provides sheet music for all musical works

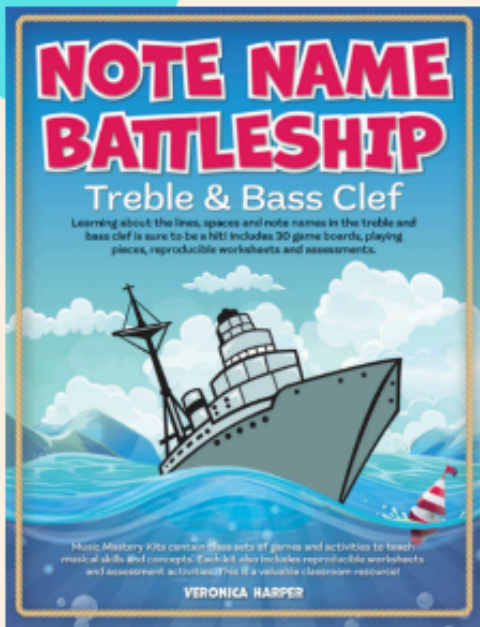

This resource is an excellent source of lessons and materials for bringing movement, music and drama into literacy-based learning.

Included in the purchase are digital files with music recordings, manipulatives, etc.

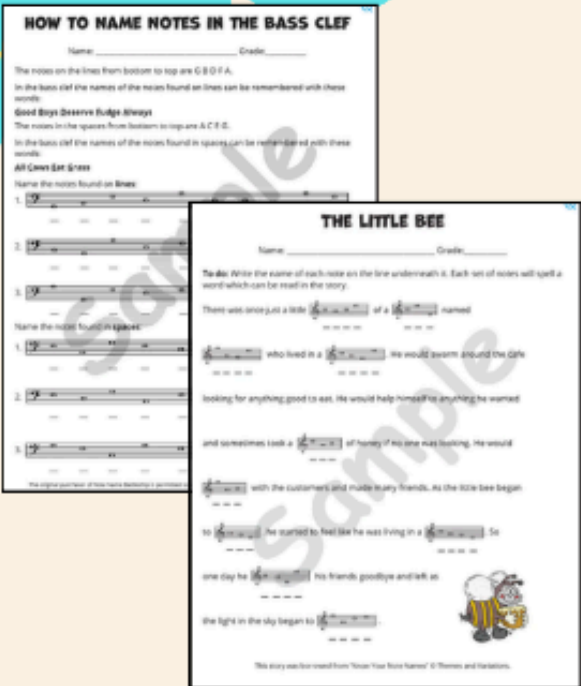

Highly recommended, this resource provides literally a whole unit on fairy tales, that is perfect for primary grades, as well as many lead up activities that can be used before starting the unit, or as stand-alone lessons and activities.

Resource #2: Note Name Battleship, by Veronica Harper

- game is perfect for consolidating concepts, teaching notes on the treble and bass staves
- flexible (treble and bass clef)
- print version provides you with a class set of high quality game cards
- use in centres or as a class activity

HOW TO NAME NOTES IN THE BASS CLEF

Name: _____ Grade: _____

The notes on the lines from bottom to top are G B D F A.

In the bass clef the names of the notes found on lines can be remembered with these words:

Good Boys Deserve Fudge Always

The notes in the spaces from bottom to top are A C E G.

In the bass clef the names of the notes found in spaces can be remembered with these words:

All Cows Eat Grass

Name the notes found on lines:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Name the notes found in spaces:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

THE LITTLE BEE

Name: _____ Grade: _____

Today: Write the name of each note on the line underneath it. Each set of notes will spell a word which can be read in the story.

There was once just a little of a named _____ who lived in a . He would swarm around the gate looking for anything good to eat. He would help himself to anything he wanted and sometimes took a of honey if no one was looking. He would with the customers and made many friends. As the little bee began to he started to feel like he was living in a . So one day he his friends goodbye and left as the light in the sky began to .

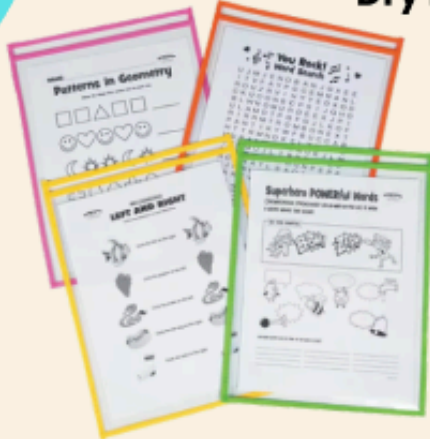

This story was first used from "Name Your Note Names" © Thomas and Victoria.

- Print and digital download available
- Includes several worksheets to supplement learning
- treble and bass clef
- differentiated

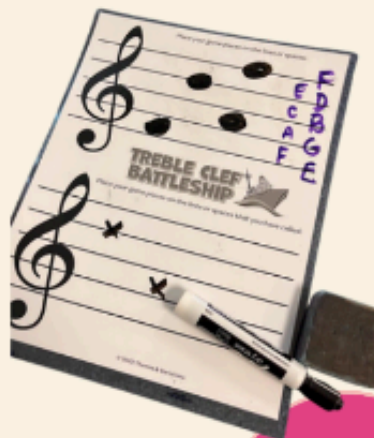

Preparation

Dry Erase Markers and Erasers

Worksheet Covers...

...or Laminate!

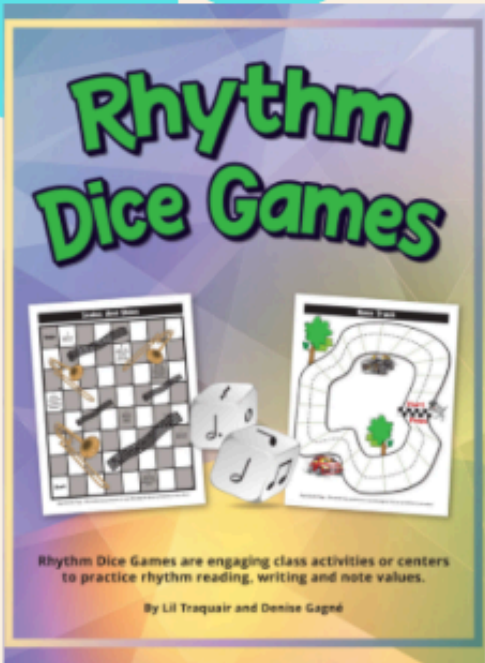

This resource is a set of worksheets and ready-to-use game boards in order to practice Treble and Bass clef note names. Perfect for class learning, independent practice and music centres, very little is needed to put the resource to use right away. A great addition to your junior and intermediate music classes!

Resource #3: Rhythm Dice Games, by Lil Traquair and Denise Gagné

The cover of the 'Rhythm Dice Games' resource features a purple and blue background. At the top, the title 'Rhythm Dice Games' is written in a large, green, bubbly font. Below the title, there are two game boards: one is a checkered board with musical notes and dice, and the other is a track-like board with musical notes and dice. In the center, there are two white dice with musical notes on them. At the bottom, there is a small text box that reads: 'Rhythm Dice Games are engaging class activities or centers to practice rhythm reading, writing and note values. By Lil Traquair and Denise Gagné'.

- several games perfect for consolidating concepts regarding note and rest values, time signatures and measure completion
- includes 7 student worksheets
- includes 10 interactive games
- use in centres or as a class activity

The logo for 'MusicPlay ONLINE' features the word 'MusicPlay' in a colorful, stylized font with a musical note above the 'i', and the word 'ONLINE' in a smaller, blue font below it.

- Blackline master worksheets available to print
- Includes several copies of game boards on cardstock
- includes 25 rhythm dice
- Additional rhythm dice available to purchase on MPO

MUSICPLAY
ONLINE

Music Literacy Concepts Covered in this Product

- quarter notes and quarter rests
- half notes and half rests
- dotted half notes
- single and paired eighth notes
- whole notes and whole rests
- time signatures (eg. 2/4, 6/8, common time)
- measure/bar completion and composition

MUSICPLAY
ONLINE

This is a jam-packed resource full of worksheets to introduce and solidify concepts, as well as two sets of high-quality, ready-to-use game boards and a class set (25) of rhythm dice. Well laid out, accessible to read and understand, with many ways to practice these musical concepts, either independently, in pairs or groups. Highly recommended for your junior and intermediate music classroom!

To see a complete slideshow all about these resources, please check out:

Resource Review Handout and Presentation by Anne McLeod 2026 for MusicPlay, MusicPlayOnline and Themes and Variations.